Student Handbook and Code of Conduct: As required by state law, the board of trustees has officially adopted the Student Code of Conduct in order to promote a safe and orderly learning environment for every student. I understand and consent to my parental responsibilities as outlined in the school district's Student Code of Conduct, Extra-curricular Code of Conduct(s), and PPISD's rules and standards as set forth in this Student/Parent Handbook. I understand that the handbook contains information that my child and I may need during the school year and that all students will be held accountable for their behavior and will be subject to the disciplinary consequences outlined in the Code of Conduct.

- My child and I opt to receive an online copy of the Pilot Point ISD Student Handbook and the Student Code of Conduct for 2018-2019
- I Request a hard copy of the Student Handbook

Directory Information: Certain information about District students is considered directory information and will be released to anyone who follows the procedures for requesting the information unless the parent or guardian objects to the release of the directory information about this student. If you do not want Pilot Point ISD to disclose directory information from your child's education records please check the following boxes. Directory information includes the following: student name, address, telephone listing, electronic mail address, photograph, and date and place of birth, as well as major field of study; degrees, honors, and awards received; dates of attendance; grade level; most recent educational institution attended; participation in officially recognized activities and sports; and weight and height of members of athletic teams.

- I object to the release of all directory information about my child for purposes other than school-sponsored purposes.
- I object to the release of all directory information about my child for school-sponsored purposes.
- I request that the district not release my child's name, address, and telephone number to a military recruiter or institutions of higher education upon their request without my prior written consent.

Use of photograph and/or electronic images in school district publications and publication of student work on WWW: PPISD uses a variety of resources to publicize district events and school news. Should you object to a photograph or other electronic image of your child on the school district website, newspaper, marketing brochures, publications, or newsletters, please check the box below.

- You May use my child's photograph and name in school news, local newspaper, school district website, marketing brochures, publications, and newsletters.
- Do Not use a photograph or other electronic image of my child as described in the paragraph above.
- Do Not publish my child's work on the World Wide Web.

Acceptable Use Policy: Parents and students are required to read PPISD's procedures for use of the district's Network/Internet found in the Student/Parent Handbook. Should you object to your child using the PPISD network which includes email, please check the box below. Forms not returned will indicate that you agree to allow your son/daughter to utilize the network for educational purposes and your understanding that in allowing your child to use the network, you release the District, its officials, and employees from all claims and damages of any nature arising from your child's use of, or inability to use, the system. PPISD shall not be responsible for ensuring the accuracy, age appropriateness, or usability of any information found on the Internet.

As a parent or guardian of a student in Pilot Point I.S.D., I have read the above information about the appropriate use of computers at the school and I understand this agreement will be kept on file at the school.

- My child may use the Internet while at school according to the rules outlined. As a student user of the Pilot Point ISD computer network, I agree to comply with the stated rules in the handbook and to use the network in a constructive manner.
